

RONNY RAST

young - cheeky - raw - authentic - soulful – versatile

When the 19-year-old outstanding talent Ronny Rast takes to the stage and picks up his guitar, it becomes clear that the “young face for good music” means business! Versed both in his singing and guitar playing, he celebrates the sound that has shaped him with such authenticity that he captivates his audience time and time again, making the live shows of Ronny Rast and his fantastic band, who have been touring Switzerland for almost two years, an outstanding experience.

The debut EP of the talented blues musician Ronny Rast, produced by Marco Jencarelli (Soundfarm Studios and former guitarist & bandleader with Philipp Fankhauser), is expected to be released in April 2025.

“The boy has an incredible spirit, it seems as if an old soul is living in his young body.”
